Q.8 What are the chances of your voting in the November election for Governor, state legislator and other offices -- are you almost certain to vote, will you probably vote, are the chances 50-50, are you less than 50 percent, don't you think you will vote, or have you already voted?
